

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Odd Fellows organizations representing a number of Windham county towns participated here Sunday afternoon in a procession and service for deceased members of the organization, one of the large fraternal bodies of the country.

The procession, escorted by the Waukegan band, left the town hall building at 2 o'clock and proceeded to Westfield cemetery, where the memorial service was carried out.

Members of Canton Windham, No. 2, made up chiefly of Windham and Danielson Odd Fellows, the uniform rank of the order, had the right of the line and made an impressive appearance. Unity campment was represented by members who are affiliated either with Protection lodge of Central Village, Quinebaug lodge of Danielson or Israel Putnam lodge of Putnam and the Rehoboth lodge of Putnam and Danielson were also represented in the line.

The service and ceremonies at the cemetery included an address by Rev. W. S. Honick, D.D., singing by a quartet and prayer. A striking feature was the formation of the letters E. F. T. by members of the Rehoboth lodge, while the brothers formed the three links emblematic of the order about them and the eastern members at the head in the formation of a cross. Returning to the hall the members of the organizations were served a lunch. In the evening they attended a special service at the Baptist church.

George Lavender, Jr., residing with his parents on Mechanic street, is number five in the list of children in this vicinity who have been injured within the past few weeks by being knocked down by automobiles. The Lavender child, who is said not to be seriously hurt, was knocked over Saturday afternoon when he ran into the rear end of an automobile owned by Walter Tillinghast of the town of Plainfield while the vehicle was near the home of Henry Myers. Mr. Myers picked the child up and carried him into the Myers home.

Examination showed that the child had a scalp wound and was otherwise injured and bruised, but not seriously, it was indicated.

Chief John McFarland said Sunday morning that his investigation had developed the information that another child, carrying an armful of hay or grass, ran out ahead of the little Lavender boy who did not see the horse and ran into a rear portion of it. The driver was unaware of the accident and proceeded, Chief McFarland said.

Hundreds of the members of St. James' parish participated Sunday in the annual procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the grounds about the church on Franklin street. The procession was headed by St. James' band. Large numbers of members of church societies were in the procession which was followed by a benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The procession was postponed from last Sunday on account of the storm.

Saturday morning Daniel Gallup went down into School street, started on his forward car and ran it back to the garage where he keeps it in the rear of the Congregational church. The car was first noticed standing in School street on Friday morning, but it was believed that it had been parked there by someone visiting in the vicinity. Late Friday evening residents of the neighborhood began to realize that something was wrong and an investigation showed that the car was the property of Mr. Gallup. The garage where it is kept was broken into to secure the car during Thursday night either by persons who wanted a joy ride or who intended to steal the machine. It is believed that the car did not happen to run well and that it was abandoned on that account.

Only two changes affect Danielson in the summer schedule, effective Sunday, of passenger trains on the New Haven road. The southbound train that has been leaving here at 1:15 p. m., beginning today, leaves at 1:10 p. m. The northbound train that has been leaving here at 2:14 p. m., is now leaving a minute earlier—at 2:13.

This summer the State of Maine expresses will run through Danielson as night trains, as for several years past, the Bar Harbor being routed via Willsboro and Putnam, as was the case last year.

Seven members of Rose of Lima council, K. of C., were at New Haven Sunday to receive the fourth degree, being taken from the train at Danielson. The members were Henry P. Dubuc, Thomas Weaver, Francis Daugherty, Oscar Bernier, Bernard Casey, Emil Mennier, and Charles Lowry. They are the first group of fourth degree knights of the local council.

At the week-end there was special interest here in a well known make of American-made automobile that was being driven through from Boston to Norwich by Benjamin Mellor, formerly of Danielson, but with the Shore Line Electric Railway as an electrician for a number of years.

It is said that this particular car is to be equipped with railroad wheels and used for experimental purposes on the Norwich and Westerly road, to determine whether it is feasible to adapt such power as it develops to use in operating cars over the line. This particular machine will be used under what would be traffic loads for a trolley car and if it does as well as is hoped for, a car will be built at Hallville, it is said, and equipped with two such power units as this automobile contains.

Beginning with this week, the Danielson office of the Western Union Telegraph company will be made a three-trunk office. Two operators are now employed here, but with the coming into effect of the summer schedule on the New Haven road and the running of night expresses an operator will be on duty here at all times, day and night.

A carnival company, the first ever to come to Danielson, arrived here Sunday morning for a week's stay in town. The outfit was visited at the grounds by large numbers of people during Sunday.

A large class will receive confirmation at St. James' church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Saturday afternoon at the same hour another class will be confirmed at the Sacred Heart church at Waukegan.

A number of Danielson people were at South Killingly Sunday afternoon, including members of the G. A. R. and other patriotic societies, to assist at the postponed Memorial Sunday services at the Congregational church in that place. Rev. W. H. Bath, Norwich, district superintendent, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church in Attawapugan on Sunday.

A large number of Danielson fans were at Wildwood park Sunday afternoon to witness the baseball game.

At the Congregational church Sunday evening there was a well attended service in the interest of Y. M. C. A. county organization work, the address of the evening being delivered by E. LeRoy Austin of Norwich.

Forty more police dog puppies are expected to arrive from New York at the Palisade kennel at East Killingly a week from next Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel Richmond of Academy street is to leave the latter part of the month to spend the summer with relatives in Cleveland.

At Tuesday evening's meeting of the chamber of commerce one of the subjects to be taken up will pertain to consideration of having a seasonal fair on the grounds at Davis park during the summer months.

Motorists are complaining bitterly about the condition of the detour on the Manchester, England, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hennon. Twenty-six years ago the family came to Jewett City when the father became boss dyer with the Aspinlock bleaching. This position he held for nineteen years, resigning seven years ago, much to the regret of his employers and employees.

Those acquainted with the status of the bleaching industry, are unanimous in the declaration that Mr. Hennon was one of the finest cotton dyers in the textile world. When employed with the Aspinlock company he was known as a strict disciplinarian. He never had an employee who had other than the most kindly feeling for him.

Mr. Hennon was a church man, a clean cut, everyday Christian throughout his long and useful life. He was a trustee of St. Mary's church and an honored member of the Holy Name society.

As a citizen in the town he will be missed by every acquaintance. The family has lost a father of the sort to be well beloved and the community a citizen of worth and integrity and marked generosity.

Mr. Hennon survived his wife eleven years. He leaves two daughters, Miss Margaret and Eugene Hennon of Jewett City and two sons, John P. Hennon of Jewett City and Herbert Hennon of Littleton, N. H.

The music at the next dance at Ashland Casino is to be by Danielson Caravan, the blind musician of Westerly and his orchestra.

The entertainment course this fall and winter is to be in charge of the American Legion Post, instead of the library, as heretofore.

The Chautauque guarantees are to meet E. Lloyd Rothfuss at Dr. G. H. Jennings' this (Monday) evening. A successful Chautauque depends to a large extent on the initial enthusiasm and support of the guarantors.

Mrs. Patrick Shea and Richard of Waukegan were week-end guests at John MacLean's, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. Ulrich Carrier and James Ward of Waukegan were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald.

John McKenna had peas for market Saturday.

Undated letter, No. 24, K. of P. attended evening service by invitation of Rev. C. H. Andrews at the Congregational church, Sunday evening. The service was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wood, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. Burial was in Danielson. The bearers were H. W. Robertson, J. A. Wood, E. B. Chubb, C. H. Thornton and A. C. Burdick.

At St. Mary's church Sunday, 46 girls and 40 boys received first communion. In the evening they were enrolled in the scapular of the Blessed Virgin.

One of the most sensational raids of recent date was made Saturday night at what is known as the Bert Cray place, occupied by John MacLean, bass, and Roudau will be arranged before A. M. Brown in the town court this (Monday) morning.

At a meeting held in Newent Sunday it was decided to postpone the Conference of Six Churches which was to have been held there June 15th. A date is to be announced later at such a time when there shall be less sickness in the Newent parish.

Lionel Boncher has received from a friend in London one of the few fifty-cent gold coins by that state shortly after the gold fever time, in '49. The coin is about the size of a bass scale, is perfect and clear. One side bears the Liberty head, the other reads Fifty Cents, California Gold, and bears the date 1853.

Jewett City baseball fans in very large numbers saw the Ashland team defeated by Tatfield Sunday. Score, 10-0. The game would have averaged up in the "Very Fair" class, only for a party named Benway who came up with the gentlemen from Tatfield. His team went home with a clean conscience, out him. Several hundred in the Jewett City audience saw Mr. Benway for the first time. They were a unit in hoping that it might be his last. Continued interference with the umpires and the play, isn't what Jewett City pays to see.

Postmaster D. F. Finn has received for posting a list of war slackers the following names are of Jewett City origin: Ralph N. Beckwith, Arthur Blanche, Louis De Silva, Arthur Poulin, William Fournier, John Pickle, George Zschneviski.

Rev. John W. Payne was taken Sunday to Backus hospital, Norwich, where he will undergo a surgical operation today (Monday).

New Haven.—At last the community fireplace which has been erected by the Camp Fire Girls at the foot of West Rock in memory of Miss Margaret Fisher, is completed and was unveiled Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
